Microstrip Antennas Sep 28 2019 "This anthology combines 15 years of microstrip antenna technology research into one significant volume and includes a special introductory tutorial by the author. Covering theory, design and modeling techniques and methods, this source book is an excellent reference tool for engineers who want to become more familiar with microstrip antennas and their applications. Proven antenna designs, novel solutions to practical design problems and relevant papers describing the theory of operation and analysis of microstrip antennas are contained within for convenient reference."

Republic of Madagascar Aug 27 2019 This Selected Issues paper and Statistical Appendix analyzes the relationship among prices, income, and money in Madagascar over the period 1982-2019. It finds that a stable long-run relationship for the price level exists, but that the adjustment toward this long-term equilibrium is quite slow. The paper presents an assessment of the real effects of monetary policy and also presents some qualitative competitiveness indicators and examines the performance of exports in Madagascar at an aggregate and product level.

Monetary and Financial Systems in Africa Oct 22 2021 This book provides an overview of the monetary and financial systems seen in Africa. The issues related to these systems are examined and evaluated in terms of their effectiveness in fostering the development of African economies. Economic integration is extensively discussed to highlight variations between different parts of Africa and the challenges seen within certain regions. The impact of monetary unions, in particular the CFA franc zone, on economic activities is also explored. This book aims to outline how sustainable economic growth can be achieved in Africa through well-developed financial and monetary institutions and policies. It will be relevant to students, academics and policy makers interested in African and developing economies. Aloysius Ajab Amin is Professor of Economics at Clayton State University. Regina Tawah is Associate Professor of Economics at Bowie State University. Augustin Ntembe is Assistant Professor of Economics at Bowie State University.

The contributions are from academics and practitioners from the entire world. We hope that the results will contribute to the further development of research in DB and IS field. The conference where these papers were presented has been approved by the IEEE Communication Society. Sponsorship. All papers have been extended significantly and rewritten completely. They have been reviewed by at least 3 reviewers from different countries who evaluated their originality, relevance, and presentation and found their quality suitable for the publication in this volume."

Der scharlachrote Buchstabe 05 2020 Der Roman spielt im Boston des 17. Jahrhunderts. Puritanisches Denken und Leben prägt den Lebenswandel der Bevölkerung. Inmitten lebt Hester, eine Frau, die ihren Mann auf eigentümliche Weise verschwunden ist. Während seiner Abwesenheit wird sie schwanger und wird als Ehebrecherin Verurteilt. Noch in der Haft gebärt sie ihre Tochter Perle. Nach ihrer Haftentlassung muss sie drei Stunden am Pranger stehen und als lebenslängliche Strafe den Buch scharlachroten Buchstaben "E" für "Ehebrecherin" tragen.

Medicina Palliativa + Expert Consult 15 2021 Este tratado de Medicina Palliativa proporciona una cobertura completa y exhaustiva, dirigida a garantizar la atención óptima de aquellos pacientes con patologías terminales. La primera edición de este libro está dirigida a todos aquellos especialistas que, de una y otra manera, se ocupan del cuidado de estos pacientes. Médicos de atención primaria, geriatras, especialistas en cuidados paliativos, internistas, oncólogos y especialistas en dolor, entre otros, son los profesionales principales a los que va dirigida esta obra. En este libro hay un amplio equipo de profesionales, procedentes de todo el espectro internacional y de diversas disciplinas, lo que hace que la obra presente una amplia cobertura de planteamientos dirigidos a los cuidados paliativos. A lo largo de los 254 capítulos en los que se distribuyen los contenidos han participado un total de 18 especialistas españoles, lo que hace que la obra sea muy adecuada para los profesionales de nuestro país. El Dr. Juan Manuel Núñez de Olarte, Jefe de la Unidad de Cuidados Paliativos del Hospital Gregorio Marañón de Madrid y editor asociado de la obra en su versión inglesa, ha sido el encargado de realizar el prólogo a la edición española de la misma. Greek Religious Terminology Nov 10 2020 A proper understanding of the words and the context in which they occur is fundamental to the study of Greek religion. This volume seeks to provide a significant portion of the source material available to present-day students of religions in the Graeco-Roman world. The ancient texts are accompanied by English translations. Revised chapters of seminal works by Zijdeveld (1934) and Van der Burg (1939) show a whole range of different contexts in ancient literature, thus arguing against an automatic equation of and with mystical concepts. The chapters give an overview of the loanword orgia in Latin poetry, and of and in the epigraphical evidence.

Mediterranean Cold-Water Corals: Past, Present and Future Feb 28 2022 What do we know about Mediterranean Cold (Deep)-Water coral ecosystems? In this book, specialists offer answers and insights into the past, present and future of these ecosystems with a series of chapters and short papers about the paleoecology, biology, physiology and ecology of the corals and other organisms that comprise these ecosystems. Structured on a timeline from the Past and Future—the reviews and selected study cases cover the cold and deep coral habitats known to date in the Mediterranean Basin. This book illustrates and explains the deep water coral habitats that might have originated similar thriving ecosystems in today's Atlantic Ocean.

The Implementation and Constructive Use of Misspecification Tests in Econometrics Oct 02 2022 This is a collection of papers co-authored by members of the Department of Economics and Related Studies and the Institute for Research in the Social Sciences at the University of York, which deals with methods for calculating asymptotically valid tests for use with samples of the size commonly encountered in empirical economics. The papers also address the scope for using test statistics to determine the nature of specification errors and for providing suitable corrections to estimates or parameters.

Handbook of Electromagnetic Compatibility July 12 2020 This "know-how" book gives readers a concise understanding of the fundamentals of EMC, from basic mathematical and physical concepts through present, computer-age methods used in analysis, design, and tests. With contributions from leading experts in their fields, the text provides a comprehensive overview. Fortified with practical examples on how to solve potential electromagnetic interference (EMI) problems that may arise in electronic design, practitioners will be better able to grasp the latest techniques, trends, and applications in this increasingly important engineering discipline. Handbook of Electromagnetic Compatibility contains extensive treatment of EMC applications to radio and wireless communications, fiber optic communications, and plasma effects. Coverage of EMC-related issues includes lightning, electromagnetic pulse, biological effects, and electrostatic discharge. Practical examples are used throughout. All information is presented in an accessible and organized format. The text is intended primarily for those practicing engineers who need a good foundation in EMC, but it will also be useful to faculty and students, since a good portion of the material covered can find use in the classroom or as a springboard for further research. The chapters are written by experts in the field. The book starts with fundamental principles, then moves to more advanced topics. Covers computational electromagnetics applied to EMC problems. Presents an extensive treatment of EMC applications to: Ra

Digest of Ethiopia's National Policies, Strategies and Programs April 27, 2022 Having just emerged from a prolonged civil war and faced with the urgent tasks of establishing political stability and reinvigorating an economy in tatters, the Transitional Government of Ethiopia (1991-1995) had to set a new direction for the economic reconstruction and social rehabilitation of the war-torn, poverty-ridden country. During the Transitional Period a spate of new policies and strategies defining the development priorities, goals and implementation instruments of the new regime EPRDF was introduced. This work is a synthesis of various sectoral policies and an attempt to trace the genesis of the policies, highlight the continuities, significant departures and other changes encountered in its implementation. The authors also try to identify the outstanding issues to be addressed by policymakers and suggest remedies. The policy reviews have been grouped into three categories: social, economic and governance sectors.
